

Cookie Policy

(ex artt. 13 e 122 - D.Lgs. 196/2003 – Codice in materia di protezione dei dati personali e Provvedimento generale del Garante per la Privacy dell'8 maggio 2014)

The present Cookie Policy is referred to the website <http://www.alegruzza.com> ("Website"), run and operated by Alessandro Gruzza Nature Photography.

Cookies are small text files sent to you by the websites through the navigation program (browser) used. They are stored on computer hard disks, thus allowing the Website to recognize users and store certain information about them (such as language preference) to enable or improve the service offered.

There are different types of cookies. Some are necessary to navigate the Website, others have different purposes such as ensuring internal security, system administration tasks, perform statistical analysis, understanding which sections of the Website matter most to users or offering a personalized visit of the Website. The contents of the cookies are automatically retrieved from the Website during a subsequent visit.

Alessandro Gruzza Nature Photography uses technical and third-party cookies (cookies that are installed from other sites) to optimize navigation and to make possible the operation of most pages.

Specifically, technical cookies are those used for the sole purpose of carrying out the transmission of a communication over an electronic communication network. They ensure the normal navigation and use of the Website and allow you to collect information such as browser type, time spent on site, pages visited, language preferences (Italian or English). These cookies do not collect information that can identify you. All information gathered is anonymous.

Disabling cookies may limit your ability to use the Website and prevent benefit the full features and services on the Website.

Third-party cookies are set by a domain other than that the user visits. They concern cookies related to the Facebook plug-in, present in the pages of the Website, which allows the user to follow Alessandro Gruzza Nature Photography on the social network. To manage or disable cookies installed by Facebook, please refer to the information available at: <https://www.facebook.com/help/cookies/>.

Alessandro Gruzza Nature Photography does not directly use profiling cookies, such as cookies that store preferences and sensitive data for commercial or advertising purposes.

Most browsers (Internet Explorer, Firefox, Chrome, etc.) are configured to automatically accept cookies. Cookies are stored on the hard drive of the user's device and they can still be deleted. Moreover, it is possible to disable cookies by following the instructions provided by the main browser, at the following links:
